I have the honour to invite your kind reference to your letter No. P.W.6964-68/Est 24-46-24 dated 11-4-1947 addressed to the Embassy of India, 2107, Massachussett Avenue, N.W. Washington, U.S.A., authorising certain payments to Messrs. L.C. Munisamy Reddy and R.L. Raju, Assistant Engineers on deputation and to your letter No.P.W.144-49/28-46-34 dated 2-7-1947 issuing revised instructions to the Embassy for payment of the amounts after deducting a sum of Rs.150/- per mensem payable to Mr. Y. Nagaraju Palace Artist, Mysore on account of Mr. R.L. Raju. As there was an interval of nearly 3 months, between the two letters noted above, it is not clear if the Embassy would have paid during the period the full amount originally authorised without any deduction. The Accounts of the Embassy have not also so far been received for verification. I have however authorised payment of the sum of Rs.150/- per mensem to Mr. Y. Nagaraju with effect from the date of relief of Mr. R.L. Raju at the City Improvement Trust Board, Mysore, as ordered in your memo of 2-7-1947, subject to adjustment of any overpayments on receipt of the bills and accounts from the Embassy.

2) The Chairman, City Improvement Trust Board, Mysore, has reported in his letter No. A.E.C.422/46-47 dated 24-6-1947 that a sum of Rs.9-3-0 is also recoverable from Mr. R.L. Raju every Nagaraju in the matter authorising full payment of Rs.150/- per mensem for which bills have been received subject to adjustment in subsequent bills.
